EDUCATION

- 2008-2014, PhD Anthropology, American University, Washington DC
Dissertation: “Facing the Rising Tide: Co-occurring Disasters, Displacement and Adaptation in Coastal Louisiana’s Tribal Communities”
- 2006-2008, MA Public Anthropology, American University, Washington DC
Thesis: “Putting a Price-Tag on Humanity: Development-Forced Displaced Communities’ Fight for More than Just Compensation”
- 1999-2003, BA Psychology, Washington University in St. Louis, Minor Anthropology, English

SOCIAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL DEVELOPMENT EXPERIENCE

- Oct 2015-current, Institute for Tribal Environmental Professionals, Consultant, Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, AZ
Work with individual tribal communities to facilitate the development of climate change adaptation plans; includes research and writing, coordination, and holding meetings and workshops with the tribe.
- July 2015-current, Livelihoods Knowledge Exchange Network, Director of Research, Santa Barbara, CA
Lead research on sustainable livelihoods to connect communities, organizations, scholars, and policymakers to address a critical gap in data and services to frontline communities affected by extractive industries; develop research tools to support communities long-term planning; provide knowledge hubs for regions impacted by boom and bust, mono-economies; bring community leaders together with organizers, government representatives, and scholars to develop and field-test data toolkits and interactive web platforms.
- Oct 2010-Sep 2014, US Global Change Research Program, Tribal Liaison, Engagement Assistant, Washington, DC
Lead author and staff coordinator for the Indigenous Peoples Chapter of the Third US National Climate Assessment (NCA); organizer and lead editor for a book and Special Issue of Climatic Change on climate change impacts and indigenous communities in the US; led a social network analysis for engagement; assisted in developing engagement strategies with stakeholders for the NCA; report writer and co-organizer for the vulnerability assessment workshop and social indicators workshop; presentations at professional society meetings and regional town halls.
- June 2013-December 2013, United Nations Development Programme, Consultant, New York
Developed training materials for regional UN offices, government officials, NGOs, and disaster experts on post-disaster needs assessment and recovery processes. Included leading week-long meeting in Geneva with representatives from each UN agency involved to agree on the materials.
- Sep 2012-Oct 2012, Ogoni Solidarity Forum, Digital Storytelling Leader, Cape Town, SA
Organized and led a group of Ogoni displaced asylum seekers from the Niger Delta in creating digital stories, which provides a living document of their struggle and continued activism. Held focus group discussions and story circles at different stages of the digital storytelling process. The project continues to evolve as the stories are created.

JULIE K. MALDONADO, Ph.D.

- Apr 2011-May 2011, World Bank, Social Development Department, Consultant, Washington, DC
Edited resettlement tool-kit for risk reduction strategies; synthesized executive summary for four case study countries in Latin America.
- Jan 2011-Apr 2011, United Nations Development Programme, Consultant, Washington, DC
Report writer for the Global Gender and Climate Alliance's joint project activities; compiled the publication, Global Gender and Climate Alliance: Collaborating, Empowering, Achieving.
- Oct 2010-Jan 2011, Natural Resources Defense Council, Climate Finance Researcher, Washington, DC
Created factsheets and reports on international climate finance mechanisms, including adaptation, clean technology, and reducing emissions through deforestation and degradation.
- Jan 2010-Mar 2010, World Bank, Independent Evaluation Group, Consultant, Washington DC
Evaluated the social and environmental risks of World Bank-funded development projects; assessed the Inspection Panel's previous and current effectiveness. Risk analysis included in the World Bank publication, Safeguards and Sustainability Policies in a Changing World: An Independent Evaluation of World Bank Group Experience.
- May 2009-Sept 2009, ClimateLab, Article Writer, Washington, DC
Wrote articles for wiki-pages on climate change and Small Island Developing States.
- Sep 2006-Dec 2008, Prof Michael Cernea, Research Assistant, Washington, DC
Supported work to review displacement/resettlement component of Turkey's Ilisu Dam Project, leading to the export credit agencies to withhold their financial support. Researched issues of development-induced displacement and resettlement, assisted with preparing articles and books for publication. From August 2010-October 2010, contributed to UK government publication on climate change and displacement.
- Sep 2008-Dec 2008, Earthworks, International Campaign Intern, Washington, DC
Researched resettlement, prior informed consent, and indigenous rights related to mining and corporations involved in mining industry; assisted with the No Dirty Gold Campaign.
- Sep 2007-Dec 2007, Co-op America, Publications Assistant, Washington, DC
Wrote environmental justice-focused articles for Real Green publication and Co-op America Quarterly; researched companies on sweatshop-free criteria.
- Feb 2006-May 2006, Ogoni Solidarity Forum, Researcher, Cape Town, SA; Ouidah, Benin
Assisted in preliminary stages of educational correspondence courses; conducted surveys to establish educational needs of community; interviewed community members; held focus group discussions with the community; created a booklet for public awareness and fundraising in the US and South Africa.
- Feb 2006-Apr 2006, Tsoga Environment Center, Environment Intern, Cape Town, SA
Assisted in workshops on sustainable development; helped with training sessions for community liaisons on the Mfuleni township water leaks and repair project.
- Sep 2004-Jun 2005, AmeriCorps National Civilian Community Corps, Corps member, Charleston, SC
Worked on a diverse team of ten people serving communities across the US southeast region in the areas of unmet human needs, education, environment, and disasters. Projects included disaster relief; developing educational modules to teach students about appropriate technologies; assisted in leading hundreds of volunteers in the construction of 20 houses for Habitat for Humanity; worked with mentally challenged adults in learning programs.

PROFESSIONAL TEACHING AND ACADEMIC RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

- Jun 2015-current, UC Santa Barbara, Department of Environmental Studies, Lecturer, Santa Barbara, CA
Teach undergraduate courses on human-environment relationships and political ecology.
- Oct 2011-Sep 2012, American University, Dissertation Fieldwork, Louisiana
Conducted ethnographic fieldwork with three indigenous communities in coastal Louisiana, focusing on environmental change and displacement. Participatory methods were employed, including story circles, intentional conversations, cross-community conversations, and digital storytelling. Held a workshop on climate change impacts and organized their input into a report for the Third National Climate Assessment to contribute to the national policy forum.
- Nov 2011-Nov 2011, United Nations University, Observing Researcher, India
Participated in, provided feedback and guidance, and observed research activities for UNU's Rainfall Project in central India, focused on the impacts of changing rainfall patterns and migration. Methods used included focus group discussions, mapping, and seasonality charts.
- Jan 2008-Jul 2010, American University, Teaching and Research Assistant, Washington DC
Gave lectures, led discussions, and trained students on anthropological theory and ethnographic methods.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

- 2016-ongoing, Isle de Jean Charles Tribe-Lowlander Center Resettlement Team, Member
- 2015-ongoing, United Nations Development Program, Social and Environmental Compliance Unit Consultant Roster, Member
- 2014-ongoing, Rising Voices 4: Collaborative Science with Indigenous Knowledge for Climate Solutions, Co-organizer, National Center for Atmospheric Research, Boulder, CO.
- 2015, United Nations University Disaster by Drought Summit. Fellow, San Luis Obispo, CA, Oct 5-9
- 2012, United Nations University's Keystone Workshop. Invited Scholar, From Social Vulnerability to Building Resilience in the Context of Climate Adaptation. Bonn, Germany, Oct 8-10
- 2011, United Nations University's Summer Academy: Social Vulnerability, Climate Change and Fragile States: Rethinking Adaptation. Fellow, Hohenkammer, Germany, Jul 18-22
- 2010, 7th Annual Public Anthropology Conference. Co-organizer, American University, Washington, DC, Oct 16-17
- 2009, Marie Curie PhD Winter School on Adaptive Governance. Participating Scholar, Vrije University, Amsterdam, The Netherlands, Nov 23-Dec 2
- 2009, 6th Annual Public Anthropology Conference. Co-organizer, American University, Washington, DC, Oct 9-10
